

TRANSPORTATION FOR OUTSIDE GROUPS

With the Governing Board's authorization, the Superintendent or designee may approve the use of school buses for nonschool purposes within the limits specified by law.

The district may require the payment of a fee. (Education Code 10913)

Transportation for Community Recreation

The Board may authorize use of school buses for cultural, recreational or educational purposes to community youth and adult groups provided application is made through the City Parks and Recreation Department.

Use of buses is contingent upon availability of buses and bus drivers.

All transportation for community service shall be in accordance with the adopted Civic Center Act as outlined in the Civic Center Handbook. The Superintendent or designee shall prepare a fee schedule. All requests for transportation under Civic Center policy shall be submitted to the Superintendent or designee.
